

4/3/68 Omaha, Neb.

Philip Boatright, 33, 6'3" x 4 Thin, fair eye thin lips, dark permanently gray hair that he wears long, with a patch that projects perhaps 3 inches in front of his forehead, is very confident. He lives at 3332 Harney St. Omaha (by phone down stairs 342-8759). He has a 2-room small guest apt. where he publishes a poetry magazine, Steppenwolf, non-political in content, & with assurance from, as with commentary & criticism. He is intelligent, well educated (B.A.) and speaks, conservative in his expression and its manner, works at State Dulance Hospital as a reader in preference to taking school, prior within a p.m. work. This also gives him time for his literary interests.

Was in D.O. from about 8/62 to 11/63 & since has had but slight connection with D.O. because of a book. The personal unpleasantness that caused him to leave got it with Dept. Contracting Agency (A-1) Employment (C work) that ended when of FIC did that Contracting Agency, then contracted with (Contracting kind of agency for work on building of that kind go when Contracting had no more work campaign. Contracting first of kind well, very spreading the fee of the employment could say. I must know he was pro / F.R.

He wrote the book speeches etc.

During the arrangements for my coming out, he seemed to have some misgivings. As I was leaving at the airport, to which he accompanied me & waited for the plane with me, he expressed them. He also said that having ~~met~~ ~~met~~ met me and often to be by is justified as to my purposes, will help in any way he can, and I think it possible he may be able to recall some things.

He talked some business but left with the feeling of that part of his personal life.
He thinks this may have had the influencing effect of closing his mind & his recollection of that period. He also suggested that possibly that is now past, but this may have been a kind of catharsis.

His journals - from notebooks of Rember 5/64. He is reluctant to part with them but will go on them carefully & keep very close with my reference to it as my people he knew there. He gave me his D.O. address book, which also has other addresses, giving me permission to keep it in my hand he would make no public use of it. We can use it as a research material. On this same basis we can use the personal letters he will also copy, and he will give us all access to N.O. or people who have a line there. What may be for practical he will arrange, That is, make a black out.

I will make a full report from the almost 3 hrs I have on tape (I promised him a copy of the tape). There were a few other things he told me when we were eating, dining & while waiting for the plane.

RT would have been much. This BL also indicated he thinks if he were to talk to RT now to see it is possible RT might feel some things, but not all others.

He does not have a high opinion of RT, or of his intelligence - or of his writing - & he has seen some of RT pretty - very little.

RT's out in the air, over the examination - if not indeed, his pleasure, still makes P.B.'s recollections He strongly dislikes this - I think only partly because of his taking part of FK. He refers to it several times.

He does like Mart in the office (where 1962 office was in the T.M. if I understand him correctly). He met Dick. Through the woman with whom Dick often was then living who was giving a man for Dick and it is the former husband of ~~Patricia~~ Patricia Hoffman, who, ~~Pat~~

After the marriage ended, lived with Mike Slater (the English wife/mother) Hoffman then came to have a good night at the Da gion. This woman / Hoffman may have married her - Barbara Reid with know - had one of P's looks of beauty not met seen + liked. This is how MCA + PB met. MCA is not much of a prospect for there are few better than P's Blue

P's Blue seems to have any thing of a talent + says he never heard MCA say anything about F.D. a success or but thinks MCA was probably ~~for~~ ~~the~~ ~~one~~ ~~in~~ ~~his~~ ~~shop~~. He does not think LT + MCA met in his presence.

Of her approach from him, he says to her in mind that she is doing "protection" of her people. She is not really from Brown LT. He says she is a woman in the ~~front~~ ~~guard~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~guard~~. He knows nothing of her new bank. She also is a pilot - in her late 40s now. He thinks I should see him. He seems not to have Barbara Reid.

He will listen to her when I send him a dub + let me know if he needs anything else.

He will also undertake to try & help to contact the mainline when O'Brien from the above, & ~~one~~ see if she would talk to me, if I go wants

Coming from Rump, he did give me is a mainly from the "Innovator", with which RT has been connected. The 1/4/64 issue had a review of "The Old Man & the Sea" by RT. On 4/65, RT's own side O'Brien & the "Holy" Christ of Moukunda. The same month "Innovator" offered "a new series" - "Confidential Subsistence". The next month, an article on the "pursuance of love" in form, one on "the protection" (should be checked to see if title is misleading)

Certain names (meaning nothing to me) first among the authors. Most common is E. C. Ray.

P. B. Thinks RT sent him this photo to the familiarity of the address on the plate, he is not a close friend. No one relating him for the past time, calls him "Phil" & leaves out "Mr."

He & RT are "controversial ideas" listed in the 4/66 issue (RT also has an all for an old assumption of publications. Richard Bray is editor

In p 3 is an article by Ian Steele intitled "Preparing for Survival: Firearms. It recommends a 2" ~~hand~~ ^{hand} pistol (1)

Under "Involvement" it lists a "unique water-based holster" that is illustrated. It was developed by an ex-police man, Jack Pierce "who, it turns out, is "an occasional contributor to INNOVATOR".

It also says this short-barrel pistol is not for accurate shooting but for "scaring" & that in many states, concealment, the ~~purpose~~ ^{purpose} of this kind of "holster" - where the pistol is, it is concealed - under the under drawers - is illegal.

None of the advertising lists any name or address - only the P.O. Box. The newsletter is 4 pp. - 1 index sheet. It is not, & the sheet at my bookstore was not the cheapest and was also not (all of it) printed.

One of the prominent P.B. made about 10 T. had to do with K.T. to attract toward women. He has sexual interest in them only - not in the sense of love but in a sort of lustful pleasure in picking them up, making, to me, friends & then not making.

RT, he thinks to be used the pretty, intelligent Latin ~~last~~ waitress at Castillo. She is the one of whom I learned from B.F. ~~his~~ his description of her looks & I have the notion it would be a good idea to try to locate her.

He describes Carlos Castillo as a mercenary man, some times very tough cruel & harsh, anxious to win a + displaying the last Latin countries. He does not have a good opinion of C.C. He knows nothing of any other ~~activities~~ activities or interest Carlos may have had. His opinion of the food: "It was good - if you like Mexican food."

He knows there were violent + violence-prone persons who in h.d. but nothing about them.

He will go over + return with an notations if there are any he recognizes. He will also be thinking about the things he discovered + if he recalls anything he'll note it + then write me. I have no reason to believe he will remember any thing else but but I do think that if he does he will write.

My overall impression is that he is a serious man, not only by his own words — and with a strong sense of this home, a man who lives by standards he regards as correct, and a man who is willing to make most of the sacrifices that are necessary to stand for what he wants to & thinks he should. He seems rather tolerant of things & people he does not agree with. He seems liberal minded. One of the few strong points before us on this local Commission, ~~the~~ was N. H. J. H., who he considers an ultra-radical & a light-weight. He told with some feeling of the point of mistakes on the property of a few who are against him in his and of his own failure to do justice himself from the act. Also of the very large role him in his own mind plays.
He is not able to understand the "hippies" & some of the form of protest.
